EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

Authorization

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with applicant's attorney Linda Saltiel on July 6, 2004.

Amendments

2. The application has been amended as follows:

The title has been changed to:

METHOD FOR CUTTING AND SHAPING RUBBER BAND MEMBERS

Claim 1 has been amended as follows:

Line 24, -- a -- has been inserted before "corresponding" and -- between the at least one of the front surface and the rear surface and the corresponding edge -- has been inserted after "strip".

Claim 3 has been amended as follows:

Line 3, -- between both the front and rear surfaces and the respective edges -- has been inserted after "strip".

Claims 7-12 have been canceled without prejudice as being drawn to a non-elected invention.

Examiner's Statement(s) of Reasons for Allowance

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

- (1) See specifically the applicant's arguments in the 3rd and 4th paragraphs of page 10 of the applicant's response filed on June 14, 2004; and
- (2) Although, based upon a partial oral translation obtained by the examiner (see attached transcript), EP 1072395 A1 teaches a process for cutting a strip of material 1 while simultaneously deformed the cut ends of the strip of material 1 similar to the applicant's invention; EP 1072395 A1 does not teach or suggest that the side surfaces of the cutting blade 15 are pressed against corresponding edges of the cutting gap 13 of the hard support 12 such that the strip of material 1 is cut between at least one of the side surfaces of the cutting blade 15 and a corresponding edge of the cutting gap 13 at a predetermined cut position as currently claimed.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
